BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1891.

It is expected of Kentucky to put $100,000 in the World's Fair exhibit.

HON. S. M. PAYTON, of Hart county, is talked of for Congress in this district.

HON. GUS. W. RICHARDSON, of Meade, is named among the candidates for Enrolling Clerk of the House.

UNDER the call for the Republican National Convention, Kentucky will be entitled to twenty-six delegates.

THE Growers tobacco Warehouse will be removed from Louisville to Cincinnati. The Alliance indorses the removal.

GROVER CLEVELAND is very proud of his girl baby, but to down Bro. Harrison for a second term it is said would cool his ambition for doing great things.

"JACK GROSS is too far in to ever back out of the Fourth Congressional district race, and is too good a politician and man to make any but a winning fight."—Louisville Times. That's putting it mighty straight and the boys from the back districts had better stand from under.

It doesn't matter much where the Democrats hold their National Convention. The locality will not be of much importance as the issues to be made before the country. The single question of Tariff Reform is the issue that should be carried all along the line.

A CALL has been made by the Louisville Commercial Club for a mass convention to be held in Louisville January 20, for the purpose of forming a state organization in the interest of Kentucky's representation at the world's Fair. All the counties in the state are requested to send delegates to the meeting.

THE case of the trustees of Elizabeth-town against the Chesapeake, Ohio and Southwestern railroad, for $200,000 for the removal of the machine shops from that place has been decided adversely to the Plaintiff. Judge McBeath sustained a demurrer to the petition on the ground that the contract between the Trustees and the E. & P. to build shops did not carry with it the idea of perpetually maintaining the same.

PERSONAL.

J. S. Wilkerson went to Stephensport yesterday.

Capt. Rowland went to Louisville yesterday.

Miss Ella Goodson went to Irvington yesterday.

Tom Queen, of Owensboro, was in the city yesterday.

A. M. McCracken was at the Cloverport Hotel Thursday.

Jimmy Miller did a splendid job of grading on Mr. Barry's lot.

Mr. John Bowers the candy man was at the English Hotel yesterday.

V. G. Balbidge, wife and children, of Hardinsburg, were here Wednesday.

Capt. Burkett has the contract for building a water tank at the brick plant.

Rev. M. E. Parish, of Louisville, will preach at the Baptist church Sunday morning and night, at the usual hour.

James Lewis with his corps of carpenters will go to Hawesville next Monday to build a long needed depot for that town.

That brick pavement at the Cloverport Hotel is going down and the boarders as well as the good landlady are all happy.

Mr. T. J. John representing the Pacific Accident Company was in the city yesterday interviewing the railroad men on accident policies.

Wm. Poor took charge of the Grand Hotel in Indianapolis, Ind., last Tuesday. Cloverporters will remember Mr. Poor when they go to Indianapolis.

One hundred new freight cars have just been ordered by the Texas road. They will be built at Jeffersonville. This road is doing a tremendous freight business.

What People are Doing and Talking About.

In a Live-Wide-Awake Natural Gas City of Two Thousand Souls.

We make no wild claims.—Sulzers.
The present time—Christmas—visit Sulzer's.

X-mas—A season of gifts—remember Sulzer's.

Miss Jennie Warfield returned home yesterday.

Sweeten the holidays with our candies.—Sulzer's.

Grand opening Friday Dec. 11th, 1891 at F. N. D'Huy's.

See F. N. D'Huy's special offer, read his advertisement.

The work on John Lillard's stone house is progressing slowly.

Miss Cora Weatherholt has accepted a position with Bowmer & Hambleton.

Mrs. Sarah LaFoe was visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. D. Temple, last week.

The right goods for presents, at the right time and at the right prices.—Sulzer's.

We will make it to your interest to visit our establishment, always something new.—Sulzer's.

Our new lamp—A collection of quaint beauties—no back numbers—up to the minute styles, inspect them.—Sulzer's.

Our Christmas advertisements are lively and interesting and mighty good reading for the old as well as the young.

Willis Green, Falls of Rough, passed down on the train yesterday for Owensboro. He reports every thing lively at the Falls.

Our Boquet Lamps are marvelous beauties each one a beautiful solitaire robed in raiment rich with the harmony of blendlid colors.—Sulzer's.

Mrs. D. Hambleton, who heretofore suffered from paralysis, had an additional attack yesterday, and her condition is still serious.

Miss Mary Fella, of Christie, Ind., was in the city yesterday. Miss Fella owns a large flouring mill in that place and has here in the interest of her mill.

J. G. Harris thinks he has a bonanza in a big gravel pit that he has just leased down at Spotsville. It is a very fine article and makes the best of streets.

Mr. S. W. Long, of Owensboro, and a fine machinist, has been given a place at the shops in this city. Mr. Long will move his family here as soon as he can procure a house.

Good dwelling houses are in demand. We know of several railroad men who want to bring their families here if they could get suitable houses. They are willing to pay good rents.

Our Vase Lamp sells on sight. This sortment is the triumphant leader of all High Grade Lamps. Without question the largest, most elegantly decorated Bisque furnished Vase Lamp ever offered to the public.—Sulzer's.

Evansville was represented here Wednesday by her city engineer and several councilmen. They came up for the purpose of examining our brick and making contracts for supplying that city. They bought 75,000 for immediate delivery and contracted for more for future delivery.

The Chicago parties were in the city Thursday to see Mr. Wilkerson as per appointment. Mr. Wilkerson says he did not close with them but the matter was left open until February. He says they are having some trouble with the railroad in regard to a switch.

Our Hall Lamps—The best looking and cheapest made—with patent lock attachment, can be pulled down and locked on hook leaving both hands free to take off chimney and light lamp.—Sulzer's.

The operatives employed at the railroad machine shops are an addition of which any community has a right to be proud. They are all artisans, intelligent and moral, and make substantial and useful citizens. The necessities of the road will soon demand an enlargement of the works, giving employment many more men of the same kind.

A. R. Fisher has purchased a handsome new fireproof safe.

Christmas gifts bought from us will make the day long remembered.—Sulzer's.

A new pump is being put in at the machine shops. It is a very fine one and has a capacity of 50,000 gallons per day. Mr. Ferry thinks two of these pumps would be ample for Cloverport's water supply, and that they could be put in for about $1,500. He thinks $10,000 would furnish this city a good system of water works. Mr. Ferry has promised to give as a series of articles on the subject of water works for this city which we will gladly publish.

Mr. D. Stewart Miller is about the busiest man in town. He is general manager for the Breckenridge Company (limited), and has his hands full. Just at this time he finds it extremely difficult to get cars sufficient to supply all his demands for coal, owing to the great rush of grain to the seaboard. He says the business of the company was never better and that he finds ready sale for all the coal he can get out. Parties at home and abroad fail to recognize what an industry the Breckenridge Company (limited) is in our midst. The aggregate of money paid out every month is large. The operations of this company add as much or more to our general prosperity than any other of the many enterprises we have.

A Welcome Visitor.

Cloverport's Prosperity Due to R. R. Pierce.

HE SHOULD BE REWARDED.

ELIZABETHTOWN, ILL., NOV. 30th 1891.

—EDITOR BRECKENRIDGE NEWS, Your paper is always a welcome visitor to our home. Wife and I look for it with pleasure and read all it contains even the advertisements. It gives us so much news of Old Breckenridge that we can't other-wise get. Am glad to note the improvement of Cloverport, it shows that the citizens are wide-awake and progressing with the times, that your merchants are men of business ability, and enterprise. I think that R. R. Pierce deserves the praise for the boom that Cloverport is now enjoying, it was through his persistent efforts that brought about the re-action. Hence the boom and improvement and now the people of your city are reaping the harvest of his labors. I think that your citizens should reward him in some way to show the appreciation they have for his faithful labor. Our town is enjoying a very good trade this fall, and the farmers are blessed with crops in abundance. Find enclosed a dollar for one year's subscription to the News we can't do without it. Success to all.

Very Respectfully,
J. A. HOLDERMAN

Vessels-Yates.

Tuesday Nov. 24th at 10 o'clock, Miss May Vessels was married to Mr. Sebastian Yates, Rev. father Raoux officiating. The bride looked the queen of beauty, she being attired in the finest of fan colored cloth. The groom handsome in the conventional suit of black, and wore a smile of proud possession fully appreciating the treasure he had won. After the wedding a number of friends assembled at the residence of the bride's parents and partook of a most sumptuous dinner, the refreshments consisting of seasonable dainties, were everything that the most zealous disciple of ancient epicure could possible desire, and when finally the influence of terpsichore had fully enveloped the souls of those so fortunate to be present, a soulless chronometer rudely awakened all to the fact that it was time to depart, and regretful from fairyland vended our homeward way. Mr. Sebastian was a most honorable gentleman in every respect, and Miss Mary was a most popular lady and we are sorry to lose her from our society. We are glad to know they will reside here in the future. May their lives be long and happy is the wishes of their many friends.

A FRIEND.

Obituary.

Mrs. Ellender H. Mason departed this life Nov. 20 1891 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harriet Muffitt. Mrs. Mason was born in Prince George county, Maryland, Aug. 10 1810, but came with her parents to Kentucky when but six months old and has lived here in Breckenridge county ever since. She has been a member of the Baptist church for many years, and has always lived a consistent christian, wielding an influence wherever and whenever she could. Her afflictions and burdens in this life were many and hard to bear, but she bore them all as becomes a christian. Her last illness was short, lasting only a few days, but she was resigned to her fate from the very first, saying that she was ready to go at any time, and when the end came fell asleep as a little child. She leaves a multitude of friends and relations to mourn her loss.

Sulzer's Tailoring Department.

Mr. J. H. Hunsche, the Foreman of our Tailoring Department will visit Cloverport, every Friday of each week. He will carry with him a full line of Samples representing our Stock of Piece Goods, which comprises all the desirable Standard and Fancy Styles introduced this season. He will be pleased to meet you at above place and date and receive your order. Respectfully,

S. L. SULZER.

To Advertisers

If you wish to advertise and need instruction, send one dollar for our "Book for Advertisers." A little study of that book will enable you to decide what you ought to do, and give an idea of the probable cost.

If you instruct us to place a certain amount of advertising for you in the way we think will do you the most good, you should send us an explicit statement of what you wish to accomplish, and make suitable arrangements for payment. Your order will then result in all the attention that it requires.

If you wish an advertisement prepared and a plan of advertising marked out; to be told what papers you should use, and what the cost will be, we will furnish the advertisement and the plan—either or both, and submit them for your consideration, together with our bill for the service.

For preparing advertisements, electrotypes and estimates the advertiser pays us. For the expense of placing advertisements and watching their fulfillment of contracts we are paid by a commission allowed by the publisher of the paper in which the advertisement appears.

If you want to learn all the ins and outs of advertising without any cost or trouble, read "Penny Press" regularly, carefully, studiously; tested weekly, $2 a year.

If you wish a complete catalogue of all newspapers, send $5 for the American Newspaper Directory.
